

About the F46 application form

Application to vary a modern award

Who can use this form

Use this form if you want to make an application for the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) to make:

- · a modern award,
- · a determination varying a modern award, or
- a determination revoking a modern award.

You should only use this form to make an application outside of the system of the 4 yearly reviews of modern awards (4 yearly reviews) or the annual wage reviews.

You must be a person, organisation or outworker entity covered by the modern award to be eligible to make an application, or be an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the person(s) or organisation(s) that are covered by the modern award.

You may make applications for 2 or more related things at the same time, depending on the kind of application you want to make. See section 158 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the FW Act) for more information about who may apply to make a modern award or for a determination varying or revoking a modern award.

About varying modern awards

The Commission must ensure that modern awards, together with the National Employment Standards, provide a fair and relevant minimum safety net of terms and conditions. In order to achieve the modern awards objective, the Commission must take into account the matters set out in section 134 of the FW Act, such as relative living standards and the needs of the low paid.

The FW Act allows the Commission to make a modern award, or make a determination varying or revoking a modern award outside of the system of 4 yearly reviews if the Commission is satisfied that to do so is necessary to achieve the modern awards objective (s.157(1)).

The Commission may also make a determination varying modern award minimum wages outside of the 4 yearly review and the system of annual wage reviews if the Commission is satisfied that to do so is:

- · justified by work value reasons, and
- necessary to achieve the modern awards objective (s.157(2)).

Note: section 157 to 160 of the FW Act set out other situations where the Commission may vary a modern award.

See the Commission's Awards & agreements web page for more information about the 4 yearly review and the annual wage review.

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a family member or friend, lawyer or paid agent, or an employee of a union or employer organisation) speaks or acts on a person's behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

There are some restrictions on representation by a lawyer or paid agent.

Generally, a person must give notice to the Commission (by lodging a Form F53 – Notice that a person: (a) has a lawyer or paid agent; or (b) will seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing) and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with the matter if they wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent them by participating in a conference or a hearing. However, the requirement to give notice and seek permission does not apply to matters arising under Part 2-3 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

The requirement to give notice and seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing, also does not apply if the lawyer or paid agent is:

• an employee or officer of the person or

- a bargaining representative that is representing the person or
- an employee or officer of an employee or employer organisation, or an association of employers or a peak council, that is representing the person.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12 and 12A of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2013 and the Commission's practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.

Glossary of common terms

Applicant – This is the person or organisation that is making an application.

Lawyer – This is a person who is admitted to the legal profession by a Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

Paid agent – In relation to a matter before the Commission, is an agent (other than a bargaining representative) who charges or receives a fee to represent a person in the matter.

2.2 What are the details of your application?

[] a determination revoking a modern award

On 8 April 2020, the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) made determinations varying 99 awards, adding unpaid pandemic leave and annual leave flexibility. This included the Surveying Award.

The determinations inserted a temporary new Schedule X which provided 2 weeks of unpaid pandemic leave and the ability to take twice as much annual leave at half their normal pay if their employer agreed.

The Commission has now extended Schedule X in many awards but not for Surveying. Schedule X ended on 30 June 2020 for the Surveying Award MA000066.

Whilst in most cases this has not been an issue, for our Victorian members this has been significant and as the Stage 4 restrictions continue. Our members are now finding they must stand down or ask staff to take leave as the work available is decreasing. This is a direct result of the pandemic and our members would like to be able to offer Pandemic Leave to their employees as the Stage 4 restrictions continue throughout September.

In most other states the work is continuing reasonably well in the circumstances and most member firms have been able to make arrangements with staff unless there are further issues with COVID of course.

However, firms in Victoria are struggling to find enough work for their staff as the nature of surveying requires them to be onsite, out on the streets, which is not possible, or highly limited during Stage 4.

We therefore seek an extension and reengagement of Schedule X for the Surveying Award on behalf of our members

Attach additional pages, if necessary.

2.3 What are the grounds being relied on?

Using numbered paragraphs, specify the grounds on which you are seeking the proposed variations.

You must outline how the proposed variation etc is necessary in order to achieve the modern awards objective as well as any additional requirements set out in the FW Act.

We believe it was the intention of the government and the Fair Work Commission to provide support where possible to employees and organisations, hence the inclusion of Schedule X originally for unpaid pandemic leave.

This issue has continued in our industry and we request reinstatement in line with the original intention of Schedule X to provide support to our industry to the end of October 2020. Backdated to 1 July 2020 would be helpful.

Attach additional pages, if necessary.
