Subject: Clerks Survey - Short extension request from Ai Group and ACCI

Dear Associate,

Ai Group and ACCI have given significant further consideration to the proposed survey and matters raised during the conference earlier this week. We are actively working on providing an agreed position to the Commission regarding further proposed changes to the survey.

Unfortunately, we anticipate that we may need a few more hours to settle this material. Accordingly, Ai Group and ACCI jointly request a short extension until 4pm today to file our feedback and proposed changes. We will of course provide it to the Commission, ACTU and ASU earlier if possible.

We note that that matter is listed for conference tomorrow and we would be content to proceed with this listing but would not oppose it being rescheduled to either later in the day or early next week, in the interest of ensuring the Commission and other parties have time to consider any material that we file.

Regards,

Brent Ferguson
