

About the F46 application form

Application to make, vary or revoke a modern award

Who can use this form

Use this form if you want to make an application for the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) to make:

- a modern award,
- a determination varying a modern award, or
- a determination revoking a modern award.

You should only use this form to make an application outside of the system of annual wage reviews.

To be eligible to make an application, you must be an employer, employee, organisation or outworker entity that is or would become covered by the modern award, or be an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the person(s) or organisation(s) that are or would become covered by the modern award.

You may make applications for 2 or more related things at the same time, depending on the kind of application you want to make. See section 158 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the FW Act) for more information about who may apply to make a modern award or for a determination varying or revoking a modern award.

About making, varying or revoking modern awards

The Commission must ensure that modern awards, together with the National Employment Standards, provide a fair and relevant minimum safety net of terms and conditions. In order to achieve the modern awards objective, the Commission must take into account the matters set out in section 134 of the FW Act, such as relative living standards and the needs of the low paid.

The FW Act allows the Commission to make a modern award, or make a determination varying or revoking a modern award (other than varying modern award minimum wages or default fund terms) if the Commission is satisfied that to do so is necessary to achieve the modern awards objective (s.157(1)).

The Commission may also make a determination varying modern award minimum wages outside the system of annual wage reviews if the Commission is satisfied that to do so is:

- justified by work value reasons (s.157(2)(a)),
- necessary to achieve the modern awards objective (s.157(2)(b)), and
- necessary to achieve the minimum wages objective (s.284(2)(b)).

Sections 159 to 161 of the FW Act set out other situations where the Commission may vary a modern award.

How the Commission deals with applications to make, vary or revoke modern awards

Modern award proceedings are generally held in public. Applications and any supporting documents are usually published on the Commission's website for consideration by other interested parties.

In determining an application, the Commission may inform itself as it considers appropriate. This may include asking for formal submissions and supporting evidence from the applicant or other interested parties.

Interested parties can be alerted to new applications and updated on existing award matters through the Commission's subscription service. The Commission's website contains information on how to subscribe to the service.

Applications to make, vary or revoke awards that relate to the Care and Community Sector or those involving gender pay equity matters are determined by Expert Panels. See sections 617 and 620 of the FW Act for information on the constitution of Expert Panels.

Lodgment and service of your completed form

1. Lodge this application and any supporting documents with the Commission.

You can lodge this application and any supporting documents by post, fax, email or in person at the Commission's office in your state or territory.

2. Lodge an application for directions on procedure. (Form F48) for directions on the procedure to be followed in relation to service of your application. The Commission may then direct you to serve a copy of your application and any supporting documents on another party. Service can be effected in a number of ways including by email, express or registered post.

3. You may be required by the Commission to serve your application and supporting documents to relevant parties. The Commission will specify the timeframe in which the application and supporting documents are to be served.

Where to get help

Commission staff & resources

Commission staff cannot provide legal advice. However, staff can give you information on:

- processes in the Commission
- how to make an application to the Commission
- how to fill out forms
- where to find useful documents such as legislation and decisions
- other organisations that may be able to assist you.

The Commission's website www.fwc.gov.au also contains a range of information that may assist.

Throughout this form

This icon appears throughout the form. It indicates information to help you complete the form.

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a family member or friend, lawyer or paid agent, or an employee of a union or employer organisation) speaks or acts on a person's behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

You can be represented by a lawyer or paid agent in a conference or hearing about matters arising under Part 2-3 of the FW Act, which includes applications to make, vary or revoke a modern award, unless a Commission Member directs otherwise.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12 and 12A of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2013 and the Commission's practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.

Glossary of common terms

Applicant – This is the person or organisation that is making an application.

Lawyer – This is a person who is admitted to the legal profession by a Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

Paid agent – In relation to a matter before the Commission, is an agent (other than a bargaining representative) who charges or receives a fee to represent a person in the matter.

Party – A party is a person or organisation involved in a matter or case that is brought to the Commission.

Respondent – The person or business responding to an application made by an Applicant.

Service – Serving a document means giving a copy of the document to a person or organisation, usually to the other party to the matter. You can serve a document in a number of ways, including by email, fax, express or registered post, or in person. Parts 7 and 8 of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2013 deal with service.

Privacy

The Commission collects the information (including personal information) provided to it in this form for inclusion on the case file, and may disclose this information to the other parties to this matter and to other persons. For more details of the Commission's collection, use and disclosure of this information, please see the Privacy notice for this form, or ask for a hard copy to be provided to you.
