OFFICIAL

Dear parties,

Please find attached the amended directions (marked up) in relation to this matter that supersede the directions issued on 13 February 2025. This is to reflect the need for an extension of time for the interested parties to submit their replies to the ANMF's without-prejudice proposal.

Kind regards,

Kuwthar Aumarah (she/her)

Associate to Justice Hatcher, President

Subject: Nurses Award Work Value Case (AM2024/11) [ME-ME.FID25443610]

Dear Associate

We refer to the directions made by President Hatcher on 13 February 2025.

In compliance with those orders, the ANMF served on our clients a without prejudice proposal on 7 March 2025. Our clients (and other interested parties) are presently required to respond to that proposal by 28 March 2025.

We write to seek an extension of time for interested parties to respond to the ANMF's without prejudice proposal by Thursday, 17 April 2025.

For reasons of illness and activities associated with preparing for and responding to the recent cyclone in Queensland, our clients' consideration of the ANMF's proposal has been delayed. Our clients consider that it is in the interests of all the interested parties that any areas of agreement can be identified and pursued prior to the application progressing.

In the circumstances, our clients respectfully request that the time for compliance with order 3 be extended to 5:00 pm (AEDT) on Thursday, 17 April 2025 and that the matter be listed for conference on a date convenient to the Commission on or after 8 May 2025.

The ANMF and the Australian Private Hospitals Association consents to this communication being sent and consents to the extension sought by our clients.

We confirm that we have copied the known interested parties on this email.

Regards

Bernie
