Subject: FW: AM2014/211 - Road Transport (Long Distance Operations) Award 2010

Dear Ms/Mr Richards,

I refer to your email below to Ms Gherjestani in relation to the above Award.

I can confirm the AWU's claim in relation to clause 12.3(a) of the Exposure Draft is withdrawn.

By way of explanation, during the 07 July Mention I offered the reference to item 32 on the summary of submissions (per below) for the convenience of the Commission in order to strike our claim, not as confirmation that we had already done so.

PN248 MS WELSH: Ms Welsh from the AWU. I just thought I'd take the opportunity in relation to the Road Transport (Long Distance Operations) Award. Point 7 is an AWU claim which we would like to withdraw, and for your reference is item 32 in the most recent summary of submissions.

Please note my contact details below for future correspondence in relation to this Award.

I hope that clears any confusion up.

Kind regards,

Roushan Walsh

Subject: AM2014/211 - Road Transport (Long Distance Operations) Award 2010

Dear Ms. Gherjestani,

I refer to the Road Transport (Long Distance Operations) Award 2010.

Vice President Hatcher conducted mentions and directions hearing on 7 July 2016 in respect of some outstanding issues in Group 2 Awards. In the mentions and directions hearing on 7 July 2016 before Vice President Hatcher, the AWU indicated that this claim has been withdrawn. It was further indicated in the hearing that this is confirmed at Item 32 of the summary of submissions. This is not apparent in the summary of submissions published on 1 October 2015 or the further revised summary of submissions published on 27 October 2015. I would be grateful, if you could please confirm the status of the claim advanced in respect of clause 12.3(a) of the Exposure Draft?
