Subject: RE: Supported Employment Services Award - AM2014/286

Dear Associate

Further to the correspondence you have just received from AED Legal could you please pass onto his Honour Justice Ross that Greenacres Disability Services does believe it will be prejudiced by further delays in this matter.

As the CEO I am representing our organisation and we have already made changes to important meetings to accommodate the time lines directed by the Full Bench.

AED Legal is only one of a number of parties in this matter and I fear any delay in the program will undoubtedly put us into the new year.

The people with disability we employ and indeed our organisation require an outcome in this matter as soon as possible so we can plan (good or bad ) for the future.

I do not believe a wedding should override this matter being completed as soon as possible in the public interest.

Kind Regards

Chris Christodoulou
CEO
