Dear Associate,

Casual and Part-time employment (AM2014/196&197)
Fair Work Commission

I refer to the above proceedings and to my telephone discussion with you yesterday.

I seek the permission of the Commission to allow a short extension on the time required for the filing of the ACTU's Final Written Submissions, which would otherwise be filed today.

Although much progress has been made over the previous months, it has become apparent that we will not be in a position to finalise the submission in the time required. The delay has arisen largely due to an aggravation of a health issue affecting a key staff member (myself).

In the circumstances we are confident that we will be in a position to file our submission one week from today, and we seek the indulgence of the Commission to allow that extension.

Yours sincerely,

James Fleming
