Dear Vice President Hatcher,

We refer to the directions issued in the above matter on 9 June 2016.

Noting that our previous submission appears to have been compromised when uploaded onto the FWC website, we are making a revised submission in an attempt to rectify this.

We confirm that we still require Mark Bell for cross examination.

Following on from discussion with the Australian Workers' Union last week, we confirm our understanding that the following NFF witnesses are no longer required for cross examination:

- Pennie Patane
- Susan Finger
- Vicki Forsyth
- Nick Leitch
- Mick Dudgeon
- Andrew Bulmer
- Ann Young
- Chris Fullerton
- John Cranny
- Stephen Pace
- Tim Wolens
- Ross Turnbull
- Andrew Young
- Cheryl McCartie
- Simon Fiddelaers
- Anne Wearden

Of the remaining NFF witnesses, we propose that they appear as follows:

Name	Location for Appearance
Donna Mogg	Brisbane
John Dollisson	Melbourne
Alice De Jong	Melbourne
Lachlan Donovan	Brisbane
Brendan Miller	Hobart
Steve Chapman	Melbourne
Rhonda Jurgens	Brisbane
Andreas Rehberger	Via telephone
Brock Sutton	Brisbane
Tracey McGrogan	Melbourne
Clint Edwards	Via telephone on 11/12 July as he is overseas or in Hobart on 15 July upon his return, or a date to be set in August.

Kylie Collins	Via telephone
Chris Schreurs	Not available
Noel Campbell	Via telephone on 14 July as he is overseas and frequently out of range, or in person on a date to be set in August.
Susan Wearden	Via telephone on 11 July or a date to be set in August
Leigh Shearman	Brisbane
Nicole Jolley	Not available

We respectfully request a video-link for witnesses appearing in Brisbane, Melbourne and Hobart and in the specific cases identified in the table above, that the witnesses be permitted to give evidence by phone.

We also confirm that the NFF will withdraw the witness statements of Chris Schreurs, Nicole Jolley and Kimberly Pearsall.

Yours Sincerely,

Sarah
