| 2    | AWU   | Sub-20/01/17          | 17.3(c)(iv)                   | Meal allowance—country work In response to question raised by Commission $8.45 payable for meals associated with any travel provided employee is performing 'country work'. If the travel is between country work locations, the $8.45 is paid in addition to the $90.44 in sub (i).  | Para 3             | At a conference, 29 March 2017, AFEI noted there may be an issue between travelling to the country and then between actual country locations. The AWU undertook to provide draft wording for discussion, which it provided in its submission dated 30/3/17.  Parties remain in disagreement as to the circumstances under which the allowance is payable and when it is payable. Parties are to provide further submissions by 12 May for the Commission to determine the issue. See Transcript-26/04/17 at [PN262-269]. |
|      | AWU   | Sub-30/03/17          |                               | Proposes clause be redrafted to:  'An employee travelling to or between country work locations will be paid a meal allowance of $8.45 for each meal. This allowance is payable in addition to the allowance in clause 17.3(c)(ii) but will not be payable if the employee is otherwise entitled to a meal allowance pursuant to clause 17.3(a). | Para 2             |  |

|      | AWU   | Sub-20/01/17          |                               | There is no industry allowance. Submits 'industry' at 22.3(b) should be 'leading hand'. Loading is calculated at 17.5% of the minimum rate + leading hand allowance + first aid allowance. If employee is a shiftworker receives higher of 17.5% and shiftwork %. | Paras 6.1-6.2          | submissions on its position by 12 May 2017, see Transcript-26/04/17 at [PN306].  |
|      | AWU   | ReplySub-22/02/17 |                               | Notes AFEI and AWU appear to agree on calculation under 22.3(b).  | Para 7                 |   |
|      | AFEI  | ReplySub-22/02/17 |                               | Agrees with AWU - no industry allowance. Does not support AWU's submission that leading hand allowance is all-purpose. Opposed to AWU's proposed method of calculating annual leave loading.  | Para 52                |   |
|      | AWU   | Sub-30/03/17   |                               | Confirmed position on calculation.  | Para 3                 |   |
