Subject: IEU Application for Orders for the Production of Documents by Child Care Operators [ABLAW-ImanageDocs.FID165140]

Dear Associate

IEU Application for Orders for the Production of Documents by Child Care Operators

We wish to withdraw an earlier version of this correspondence and seeks to rely on the below.

During yesterday's hearing we confirmed that we were attempting to obtain instructions from the 48 centres who are named in the IEU's application for Orders for the Production of Documents. The intent is to confirm instructions to respond on a global basis as far as is possible.

Notwithstanding ABLA confirmed it has received instructions from G8 Education Limited (G8).

For the purposes of G8 only, we are instructed to consent to the Order for the Production of Documents but not to the:

1. Proposed return date, instead G8 proposes 12 July 2018;
2. IEU proposed Draft confidentiality Order in its current form.

As was confirmed yesterday, we confirm the specific basis for the alternative return date is that G8 Education Limited is currently undertaking financial year end processes. This is a substantial undertaking for a publically listed company.

G8 is also managing the transition from the Child Care Rebate and Child Care Benefit to an entirely new system named the Child Care Subsidy that has and will affect the company's business model and cost structures in the provision of children's services to families.

Another matter is that there are approximately 500 Early Childhood Teachers employed by G8 Education Limited across a large number of businesses and brands across Australia. As such it is, even by itself a large task to compile the relevant information.

For all of the foregoing reasons, we are instructed that G8 cannot comply with the Order for the Production of Documents until 12 July 2018. We accordingly file an amended draft Order in the form attached confirming the amended return date.

We additionally attach an amended Draft Confidentiality Order. Its amendment is now confined to a single new item 3 that seeks to limit the use of the documents produced under the Order to the purpose of these proceedings.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact Michal Roucek on 9458 7018.

Yours sincerely
Michal Roucek
