OFFICIAL

Dear Associate,

We thank the President for allowing the MEU a further period to confirm instructions.

The MEU has members who are purportedly covered by EM2013/99 - The Coal Mining Industry (Mines Rescue Staff) Award, 2005, Queensland. The MEU acknowledges that Schedule B and I of the Black Coal Mining Industry Award 2020 covers these individuals' employment. As such, we will not make submissions opposing the President's provisional view.

Kind regards,

Jack Patrick

Subject: EM2023/1 - Termination of enterprise instruments

Dear Associate,

EM2023/1 - Termination of enterprise instruments

I refer to the President's statement concerning the above matter issued on 12 October 2023.

We note that the President invited parties to respond to his provisional view at [8] of the statement by 4:00 pm (AEDT) on Thursday, 26 October 2023.

The Mining and Energy Union represents members covered by EM2013/99 - The Coal Mining Industry (Mines Rescue Staff) Award, 2005, Queensland. We have had difficulty confirming instructions as to whether we will respond to the President's provisional view. We respectfully request an extension to respond until 4:00 p.m. (AEDT) on Monday, 30 October 2023.

We apologise for seeking an extension after the President's deadline yesterday afternoon.

Kind regards,

Jack Patrick
