Subject: Re: C2019/5259 Review of Certain C14 Rates in Modern Awards - Extension Granted

Good Afternoon,

I refer to the correspondence from chambers dated 17 February 2023 in which the Commission granted an extension to AI group to consult with their members in regards to the union's correspondence.

The RTBU is currently considering the information provided to us yesterday by AI Group but requires more time to reach all those affected.

Thus the RTBU requests a further extension of two weeks to allow us to discuss with our members and then allow time for the RTBU to have further discussions with AI Group in a hope of narrowing the issues.

We appreciate that the Commission has already provided a two week extension, however the RTBU is confident that these discussions that will occur over the next two will be fruitful if a further extension is granted.

I have spoken to AI group prior to sending this correspondence and they consent to the RTBU's extension request.

Kind regards

Minna Davis
